

We are stationed just over the Rhine, and not far from Cologne.
 The billets are fine,
 but I shall be glad when we get away
 from these squeak-heads.
 Was glad to hear you
 had such good luck
 in the hunting season.
 I hope you know of a good place for this fall Rob. We are expecting to get back about the end of April if all goes well. How is Clyde these days, tell him to write. Hoping you are all in the best of health.
 With kindest regards to all my friends. I remain Yours Will
